

Landscape Designer Opening in Austin

Rialto Studio is continuing to grow in our Austin office, and we are looking to add an Landscape Designer to our team. We are seeking a creative, ambitious individual who shares the joy of teamwork and collective wisdom, and who is not encumbered by someone else's definition of landscape architecture. This individual will need the adaptability to assist with growing a young office, the energy and enthusiasm to help expand our company in the Austin market, and the desire to learn and collaborate with others. The successful candidate will work closely with our Austin team and will collaborate with our team in San Antonio from the early planning and schematic phases of the project through construction documentation and observation.

Who we are:

Rialto Studio practices a broad definition of landscape architecture, designing projects of multiple types and scales. We embrace a multidisciplinary team approach to problem solving, and have built our success on thoroughness, attention to detail, and an abiding empathy for the character and sense of a place. That approach has yielded a long history of successfully constructed projects, projects that are among Central Texas's most important and enduring places. Who we are looking for:

We are seeking the following qualifications:

- 1 to 5 years' experience in a professional office
- Proficient in AutoCAD, Photoshop, InDesign, Sketch-Up, Lumion and MS Office software
- Passion for design and the design process
- Basic knowledge of construction documents and methods
- Strong graphic abilities
- Excellent organization and communication skills
- Attention to detail, ability to meet deadlines, and willingness to work as part of a team
- Desire to learn from and collaborate with other professionals
- Graduate from an accredited program of landscape architecture
